

Bridgette Robinson

Director of Athletics & Education

Education & Philosophy

Bridgette received her master's degree from Loyola Marymount University with an emphasis in education. Additionally, she has received several certificates from the SBDC and has been on business podcasts and publications for her success in business. Her philosophy behind building successful business is to lead with ethics and follow through with creating sustainable systems.

Business & Operations

Bridgette has the entrepreneurial spirit, dedication and passion to help any business flourish and grow. Bridgette specializes in creating start-ups and turning them into profitable businesses through processes by establishing positive "team" culture, creating efficient and sustainable systems, and maintaining relationships with clientele and community members.

Bridgette has been the founder, leader and consultant for many for-profit and nonprofit educational programs including:

- The Bilingual Environmental Science Academy
- Resources for Development Education (RIDE)
- The BESA School
- One Love Learning Tutoring Programs
- Soccer iQ Institute

Check out her interview with Lori from the SBDC about creating sustainable programs!

SmallBiz Talks: Developing a Sustainabl...